The acting company of the People With AIDS Theater Workshop is composed exclusively of people with AIDS and ARC.

The Workshop process is designed to draw directly from the real life experiences of the actors. Based on audio-taped exercises and improvisations, the piece is by definition flexible and modular, reflecting changes in the social climate and the experiences of new members, accomodating the exigencies of individual health problems.

In order to represent the widest possible spectrum of those most affected, The Workshop is engaged in an ongoing effort to include men and women of various races, cultures and sexual orientations.

The Workshop wishes to thank Terry Eno, Mario Giacalone, Carter Inskeep, Mary Jay, John Johnson, Rodney Kirk, David Mc Corkle, Tom Myler, Dorothy Slender, Peter Jack Tkatch and the staff of Manhattan Plaza for their help and support.
